Fee

There is no fee charged to apply for legal aid.

Approval Time

Under normal circumstances, the Commission will make a decision within 15 days upon the receipt of the application as well as all documents and information. If there is ample justification, decision must be made no later than 30 days.

Judicial Appeal

If the Legal Aid Commission declines an application, withdraws the legal aid or declares the legal aid invalid, the applicant may file a judicial appeal to the Court.

Note:

- 1) It is a crime to provide false information or forged documents with the purpose of obtaining legal aid.
- 2) If the beneficiary discovers that the amount of available assets of oneself and family members exceeds twice the legal amount before the end of legal proceedings, notification must be made to the Commission within 5 days from the date of knowledge; otherwise a penalty of a fine of MOP5,000 to MOP20,000 will apply and the granted legal aid may be withdrawn.
